

“An Awareness Program against Superstition”

Held on 14 February 2018 at KDK College of Engineering, Nagpur

Introduction

At the beginning of the 21st century and the new millennium, everyone is aware of the need to be able to think with an open mind and to lead a rational life. Maharashtra has a long legacy of rationalist social reformers who always took an objective and informed stand against superstition. The constitution of India has stipulated adoption of scientific outlook as one of the responsibilities of every Indian and has included it as a value to be inculcated through education.

Objectives:

- To spread and develop scientific nature among the students
- To aware the student about the constitutional and humanistic principles towards life.
- To initiate scientific, social and constitutional wisdom and responsibility towards society.

Report:

An “Awareness Program against Superstition” for students of KDK College of Engineering was organized on 14 Feb 2018. Program was inaugurated by the hands of Dr. A. M. Badar, Vice Principal, Prof. A. A. Jaiswal, HOD (C.T.), Dr. S. P. Khandait, HOD(I.T). On this Occasion Shri Harish Deshmukh, Secretary, Akhil Bharatiya Andhashraddha Nirmulan Samiti was the guest speaker for the function. On this occasion he elaborated his view on the matter how rural areas people become victim of various superstitions. He also pointed out that many people are educated but still they maintain various superstitions. It is mainly because they don't apply their educational knowledge to fight those superstitions. Shri Harish Dheshmukh enlightened the gathering through various “Chamatkar Prayog” based on superstition eradication. As well as Dr. A. M. Badar has shared his views on this occasion.. Prof. Pradnya S. Moon anchored the program while Prof. Kamal Chadwani proposed a vote of thanks. All the faculty members of department C.T. and I.T. worked very hard for successful conduction of the program. Dr. D. P.

Singh, Principal , Secretary , Rajendra Mulak and Treasures Yashraj mulak congratulated and given best wishes to students.
