Seminar on “Communication skill and Personality Development”

Date: 02 Aug. 2025

Seminar Report

Objective – The objective of the seminar was to help students enhance their communication abilities, build confidence, and understand the importance of a well-rounded personality in the modern workplace.

Description- The Department of Information Technology at KDK College of Engineering, Nagpur organized an enlightening seminar on “Communication Skill and Personality Development” on 2nd August 2025 for the 2nd year students of the department. The session was conducted by Ms. Nidhi Sanghani, an expert trainer from Jetking Nagpur, known for her extensive experience in soft skills training and professional development. The objective of the seminar was to help students enhance their communication abilities, build confidence, and understand the importance of a well-rounded personality in the modern workplace.

Ms. Nidhi Sanghani began the session by highlighting the significance of communication in both personal and professional environments. She explained various forms of communication—including verbal, non-verbal, written, and visual communication—and emphasized how each plays a crucial role in shaping one’s personality. Through interactive discussions and real-life examples, she demonstrated how effective communication can influence teamwork, leadership, and career progression.

The seminar also covered essential aspects of personality development, such as positive attitude, body language, time management, emotional intelligence, and professional etiquette. Ms. Nidhi Sanghani engaged the students through activities like mock interviews, group discussions, and confidence-building exercises, allowing them to identify their strengths and areas for improvement. She encouraged the students to adopt proactive communication habits, practice active listening, and maintain a well-balanced personality to meet modern industry expectations.

The session was highly interactive and motivating, providing students with valuable insights into the importance of personal grooming, self-awareness, and professional behaviour. Students actively participated and expressed that the seminar helped them gain clarity on how to improve their communication skills and develop confidence for future opportunities.

Brief about an Activity	The Department of Information Technology at KDK College of Engineering, Nagpur organized an enlightening seminar on "Communication Skill and Personality Development" on 2nd August 2025 for the 2nd year students of the department. The session was conducted by Ms. Nidhi Sanghani, an expert trainer from Jetking Nagpur, known for her extensive experience in soft skills training and professional development. The objective of the seminar was to help students enhance their communication abilities, build confidence, and understand the importance of a well-rounded personality in the modern workplace. The purpose of this activity was to highlight how clarity of speech, attentive listening, teamwork, and positive body language contribute to successful communication. Students actively participated, shared their thoughts, and learned how to express themselves confidently in front of others. The activity created an energetic atmosphere and helped students become more aware of their communication strengths and areas for improvement.
Objectives	1. To enhance students' communication skills by introducing effective speaking, listening, and presentation techniques. 2. To develop personality traits such as confidence, positive attitude, and interpersonal skills. 3. To create awareness about the importance of soft skills in academic, professional, and personal life. 4. To motivate students to adopt better communication habits and develop a growth-oriented mind set.
Outcomes	1. Improved communication ability — students gained better understanding of verbal and non-verbal communication. 2. Enhanced confidence and self-presentation, enabling them to express ideas more effectively in class and public settings. 3. Increased self-awareness about their strengths and areas for improvement in communication and personality development. 4. Practical exposure to techniques used in the corporate world for effective interaction and personality grooming.
