

KDK College of Engineering
Department of Management Studies
Innovations in Teaching and Learning

The faculty members of Department of Management Studies brought following innovations in teaching – learning process aiming at achieving the intended purposes.

Sr. No	Methods of delivery	Description	Tools	Impact
1	Interactive Learning	Timetable, Course/syllabus, Course Outcomes, PO ,Question Papers, Attendance, Teaching Plan, Notes	Teaching Plan Assignments	CO-PO Attainment
2	Guest Lecture	Lectures by expert on various current management related topics	ICT Tools	Students get the exposure to real world life experiences shared by experts and become aware about the current management practices

3	Project Based Learning	It is an instructional approach designed to give students the opportunity to develop knowledge and skills through projects	Project Reports, Internship	Students knowledge and skills are developed through engaging projects set around challenges and problems they face in real world
4	Educational visits/tours	It provides practical knowledge and hand on learning experience	Industry visit, Departmental Advisory Board. Expert Lecture, Seminar, etc	It helps students enhancing their skills essential for better understanding of their work positions, processes and functions.
5	Interaction with alumni	Regular interaction with alumni for industrial /field updates	Interaction lectures, workshops	Creates awareness about current job, scenario and industry expectations

7	Student Association	Master Of Business Administration Student Association(MBASA)	Students activities related to enhancements of skills and personality development	Student organizations give access to opportunities for their growth and enhance their management skills